Letter from the Head of School

Dear Friends.

In this issue of Quaker Works, we celebrate several exciting launches for Friends' Central School, and we welcome you to jump in and experience them

First, in the spring of 2014, the Board of Trustees approved our first Mission and Vision Statements (see back cover). Second, in May, we welcomed hundreds of graduates back to FCS during Reunion Weekend 2014, giving them a chance to reminisce and to celebrate their passion for their alma mater. In June, the extraordinary Class of 2014 graduated, moving on to the next stage of their lives, leaving a lasting impact on our school. Finally, just a few weeks ago, we launched an entirely new website, featuring a responsive design and exciting, dynamic features.

Each of these changes celebrates the essence of Friends' Central School and continues our tradition of excellence. We are proud to cultivate the innate promise within each of our students, as articulated in our Mission Statement. And we rejoice to see that promise realized - from the artwork and accomplishments of our students in Nursery through Grade 12 to the accolades earned by our alumni/ae. Our outstanding faculty recognizes and nurtures the unique passion of each student, giving him or her the tools necessary to thrive in college and beyond.

Craig is now hosting regular Vlogs (video blogs) throughout the year. Visit the FCS website to see his latest Vlog.

You will receive your issue of Quaker Works during the holiday season a time when your Friends' Central experience may move you to pause and give thanks. No doubt we all have many reasons to be grateful. I am grateful for a student body that is both curious and compassionate; colleagues who are dedicated and passionate; a Board of Trustees that is thoughtful and engaged; and a community of parents, alumni/ae, and friends devoted to the success of our school.

Please join me in thanking our wonderful communications staff members who do such a terrific job in making Quaker Works come alive with demonstrations of promise realized.

Onward to a wonderful holiday season and a happy, healthy New Year! ow

ON THE COVER

Middle School students enjoy lunch on the brand new Adirondack chairs adorning Felsen Common. The chairs were made from the wood of the historic oak tree located outside the Main Building that sadly fell last year during one of the storms that hit the Philadelphia area. We believe this tree was planted over 150 years ago, before the house that is now the Main Building was constructed.

SIX-WEEK LANGUAGE IMMERSION IN CHINA

Last summer, Emma Verges '17 spent six weeks living with a host family and studying Mandarin Chinese. She was one of only a handful of students across the country to win a merit scholarship through the National Security Language Initiative for Youth (NSLI-Y) program. Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, the goal of NSLI-Y is to "promote critical language learning among American youth and to spark a lifetime of interest in language learning."

I THE N

"The second I stepped off the plane from Beijing to Chengdu, I saw my name being held up with three smiling people beneath it. I was so overwhelmed and excited that I hugged them! We were told that contact such as hugging was fairly uncommon and for the 13hour plane ride ... I did take the time to plan the perfect 'friendly wave' and 'excited smile.' I forgot, but you know what? Before getting on the plane back to America, my mama and baba were the ones initiating the hug.

"I took 5,800 pictures and kept a journal, and all of it put together still would not describe the growth I went through in China. I still keep in contact with not only my host families and friends whom I call almost every week for high school advice, but also with people I met for two minutes at a bus stop and exchanged contact information (best way to practice a language introductory conversation with a stranger)." - Emma Verges

FIFTH GRADE BELL RINGING

Following FCS tradition, at the end of the 2013-2014 school year, a Meeting for Leaving was held for the fifth grade - an opportunity for students to reflect back on their Lower School years and to look forward to the transition to Middle School ahead. After the Meeting for Leaving, every fifth grader, one by one, rang the Lower School Friendship Bell, symbolically closing the school year and celebrating the start of Middle School.

ALS Ice Bucket Challenge Comes to FCS

At the start of the new school year, Friends' Central Lower School teachers accepted fourth grader Aiden Sandler's ALS Ice Bucket Challenge. The teachers decided it was important to take part in the challenge, in which participants have ice water poured on their heads and challenge others to raise awareness for the ALS Association.

ONE FCS SERVICE PROJECT

All three divisions came together for a one FCS service project in the spring. The Middle and Upper Schools collected clothing and toiletries to benefit the Bethesda Project, which provides temporary and permanent housing to homeless men and women in Philadelphia. The Lower School contributed dessert mixes for the women of Bethesda's Spruce Street house, and Upper School Service Committee members baked and decorated the desserts, which they delivered to the Spruce Street house during the May Upper School service days.

SCULPTURE DONATED TO FCS

Visitors to campus may notice that a new sculpture has recently been installed on Felsen Common. The work, entitled "Night Float," is a non-representational construction in steel by artist Joe Mooney. The piece was generously donated to the School by Alfred and Barbara Kurtz, parents of Amy Kurtz '03, on behalf of the family.

SEGA SCHOOL PROJECT

In spring, Lower School students made and sold flower-themed notecards containing flower seed packets as a fundraiser to benefit the SEGA School in Morogoro, Tanzania, an 8th-11th grade school for girls. Second graders planted a SEGA bed in the Lower School garden with zinnias, morning glories, cleome, and sunflowers.

Nusura Gundi, a student from the SEGA School, was a visiting sophomore in the Upper School during spring semester. Nusura and her host sister, Lindsay Saligman '14, visited the Lower School to talk to students about life in Tanzania and about the mural project on the water tower at the SEGA School, a collaboration between muralist Meg Saligman, her FCS daughters, and SEGA students the previous summer.

Middle School Play Agatha Rex

The Middle School production Agatha Rex, performed in March, was a hit with audiences of all ages. Agatha Rex, a comedy written by Lindsey Price and loosely based on the ancient Greek tragedy Antigone, was set in a modern-day high school, translating the original Greek chorus into a fantastic ensemble opportunity. Middle School actors donned school uniforms to evoke a very different academic environment than that of Friends' Central.

Upper School Drama Production Much Ado About Nothing

In February, the Upper School performed William Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing. Set in 1945 against the backdrop of VE Day, the lively, family-friendly comedy brought together the talents of Upper School actors, dancers, musicians, singers, set designers, and lighting and sound technicians.

Spring Concerts

At the Lower, Middle, and Upper Schools, musicians and singers showcased their many talents at the Spring Instrumental and Choral concerts.

National History Bee Comes to FCS

Grandparents' & Special Friends' Day in the Middle School

In May, grandparents/special friends spent the morning at Friends' Central, getting to know the School and their Middle School hosts' teachers and friends. The morning concluded with a musical recital that was much appreciated by the special guests.

Phoenix/FOCUS Collaboration

In the spring, The Phoenix Inquirer, Friends' Central's Middle School student newspaper, collaborated with FOCUS,
the Upper School student newspaper, for a special "One FCS" issue to wrap up the school year. This special issue was "created by the staff of both The Phoenix Inquirer and FOCUS to celebrate the common spirit that unifies our community."

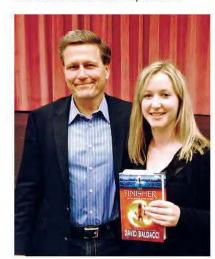

(Excerpted from The Phoenix Inquirer)

AUTHOR VISITS

Last spring, FCS was thrilled to play host to no less than three best-selling authors.

In April, award-winning author James Howe visited the Middle School to read from his new book, Also Known as Elvis, the fourth and final book in his Misfits series. The Misfits was required reading for rising 6th, 7th, and 8th graders this summer and was the inspiration for one of the largest anti-bullying campaigns in the country, the national No Name-Calling Week, observed by the Middle School in September.

David Baldacci, New York Times
Bestselling Author of The Finisher and The Target (pictured above with Victoria Schwoebel, FCS Technology Coordinator and MS/US Librarian), came to speak at FCS in May at an event coordinated by Children's Book World.

Also in May, Alex London, author of last year's Middle School Book Fair bestseller Proxy, talked with excited Middle School students about his soon-to-be published sequel, Guardian.

Dr. Laurence Smith (center) with Gardner Hendrie '50 and John Gruber, Chair of the Science Department

Distinguished Lecture Series

One of the world's most respected climate scientists, Dr. Laurence Smith, Professor and Chair of Geography and Professor of Earth & Space Sciences at UCLA, was Friends' Central's 2014 Distinguished Visiting Scientist. His debut book, The World in 2050: Four Forces Shaping Civilization's Northern Future, has received praise and critical acclaim for its assessment of future climate change and its effects on northern ecosystems and countries, including the United States. In April, Dr. Smith shared his perspectives on global climate change with a captivated audience at Friends' Central. He spent the following day meeting with members of the Upper School Science Core Team.

In June, Upper School Science Core Team students visited the Smithsonian Environmental Research Center (SERC) in Edgewater, MD, to hear a presentation on ocean acidification and visit the world's longest running field study on the effects of elevated CO2 levels on plant growth in an ecosystem. A fitting culmination to the year of study that included Laurence Smith's visit.

2014 Distinguished Visiting Humanities Lecturers

Assistant Professor of English, Swarthmore College

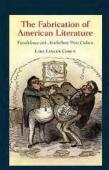

and

Halimah Marcus '03

Editor-in-Chief, Electric Literature's Recommended Reading

DECEMBER 3, 2014

7:30 pm • Shallcross Hall

Lara Cohen '95 is an assistant professor of English at Swarthmore College and the author of The Fabrication of American Literature: Fraudulence and Antebellum Print Culture, in which she discusses the unprecedented explosion of publications that emerged in the years before the Civil War, as "authentic" American literature came of age in the free-for-all world of the popular press.

Working in the 21st century
online counterpart of the world
Lara describes,
Halimah Marcus '03

is co-editor of the online magazine Electric Literature and editor of its offshoot Recommended Reading, a notfor-profit, reader-supported online journal of creative writing (www.recommendedreading.tumblr.com).

We're thrilled to welcome these two illustrious graduates to the Friends' Central stage to talk about the thread of American literary production from past to present: how stories are written, edited, published, and distributed and what it means to be a literary entrepreneur in the democratic realm of the Internet.

FRIENDS' CENTRAL SCHOOL'S ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

CHARLES BEARS, MAIN LINE ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Friends' Central pitcher Charles Bears '14. who in his first three starts in his final season at FCS struck out 21 batters in 19 innings, with a 1.11 ERA, was the Main Line Boys' Athlete of the Week for Main Line Times/Main Line Suburban Life on April 27.

LACROSSE CHAMPIONS

For the second year in a row, Emma Dahle '14 was named US Girls' Lacrosse First Team All American. Emma will continue Friends' Central's legacy of All Americans playing lacrosse at Brown University. She will join her sister Becca Dahle '12 on the field and also follow in the footsteps of her FCS coach Lauren Becker Rubin '83.

In other exciting lacrosse news, this summer, Coach Lauren Becker Rubin was named Phillylacrosse.com Girls' Team Coach of the Year. Lauren completed her 11th season as FCS Varsity coach by guiding her team through the Pennsylvania Independent Schools Athletic Association (PAISAA) tournament and winning the State championship. Friends' Central upended first seed Agnes Irwin in the PAISAA Championship game, defeating the host owls by a score of 13-11. Lauren and her teams have also won five Friends Schools League (FSL) championships in her 11 years.

Congratulations are also due to lacrosse players Lisa Bernstein '15, Emma Dahle '14, Kate Forrest '14, Julie Levitan '14, and Julia Lynn '14 on being named Academic All-Americans.

VARSITY SOFTBALL WINS THIRD CONSECUTIVE FSL TITLE!

Despite going into the playoffs as the #4 seed, the Varsity softball team came out at #1, defeating Friends Select by a score of 6-5 to win its third consecutive Friends Schools League title. Sophomore pitcher Carolyn Spellacy was stellar on the mound, finishing with a careerhigh 13 strikeouts. Seniors Isabel Nardi and Emilia Weinberg, junior Jane Goldstein, and sophomore Caroline Fakharzadeh contributed two hits apiece in the win.

VARSITY BOYS' TENNIS VICTORY

Varsity boys' tennis claimed their sixth consecutive Friends Schools League Championship by defeating Shipley 4-1 in May. The host Phoenix swept the singles matches while splitting the doubles matches.

MIDDLE SCHOOL TRACK TEAM

The Middle School track team performed well at the Lower Merion invitational in May. Both individual and team performances were outstanding, with some meet records set by FCS Middle School track athletes. Special "shout out" to 8th graders Gabby Wilkinson, Rose McDonnell, Ally Cohen, and Amelia McDonnell.

FRIENDS' CENTRAL TRACK ATHLETES SHINE AT AAU JUNIOR OLYMPICS

Friends' Central School was well represented at the AAU Junior Olympics in Des Moines, Iowa, at the end of July, where, among other top results, two national records were broken by FCS student athletes. Gabby Wilkinson '18, representing Mt. Airy Track Club, broke the national record in the 1,500-meter run, which had stood since 2009. Avery Lewis '24, representing Infinity Track Club, broke the national long jump record. Infinity Track Club is coached by Friends' Central Varsity girls' track Coach Brandon Shell.

NEW LOWER AND UPPER SCHOOL LEADERSHIP

Friends' Central was thrilled to welcome Lower School Principal Kelly Bird Pierre and Upper School Principal Arthur (Art) Hall to the community on July 1, 2014 to kick off the 2014-2015 school year.

KELLY BIRD PIERRE brings tremendous Lower School experience and a true Lower School orientation to Friends' Central. She is a graduate of Wesleyan University and The Bank Street School of Education, where she received a Master of Science in Elementary Education. Pierre spent the first 13 years of her career teaching 2nd-4th grades at The Town School, The Little Red Schoolhouse, and The Packer Collegiate Institute. While at Packer, Kelly served as the Coordinator of the Lower School Mentoring Program, observing new teachers, providing feedback, and planning professional development. Most recently, Pierre was the Director of Enrollment and Admission at the Hewitt School in New York where she also served on the Lower School Math Steering Committee and co-founded the Hewitt Circle, a parent group focused on issues of inclusivity.

ART HALL, a passionate and inspiring educator, began his leadership of the Friends' Central Upper School in July after a national search that included a pool of almost 100 candidates. Art comes to Friends' Central from Greenhill School in Dallas, TX, where he was the Director of Equity and Inclusion. Previously, Art served as Greenhill's Dean of Students and Director of Student Activities for 10 years. He has also taught Upper School history, economics, and A.P. computer science and served on numerous academic and administrative committees. He began his independent school career as a computer specialist at the Harvard Westlake School in Studio City, CA. A dual political science and history major from UCLA, Art received his M.Ed. with a specialization in gifted and talented learning in 2006 from Southern Methodist University, where he is Board Chairelect for the African-American Alumni Association.

NEW FACULTY AND STAFF

Along with Art Hall and Kelly Bird Pierre, there are 24 faculty and staff members new to the FCS community this year.

ACCOLADES AND BOOK LAUNCH FOR AL VERNACCHIO

Friends' Central Upper School English and Human Sexuality teacher Al Vernacchio has published his first book, For Goodness Sex: Changing the Way We Talk to Teens About Sexuality, Values, and Health. In his book, which has received national attention and acclaim, Al shares his more than 20 years' experience in the classroom to give parents the insight and tools necessary for talking with teens about sexuality in a loving, comfortable, and appropriate way. FCS, in collaboration with Main Point Books, hosted a successful and well-attended book launch event in Shallcross Hall in September.

To add to his achievements, in April, Al received the AIDS Fund "Founders' Award" in recognition of his commitment to the fight against HIV/AIDS. For the past 15 years, Al has volunteered at ActionAIDS, Philadelphia's largest AIDS-service. From 1994 to 1998, he was the Coordinator of Training and Volunteers at ActionAIDS.

The Founders' Award was presented to Al at the 15th Annual Black-Tie Gay BINGO, where all funds raised went to HIV/AIDS services in the Greater Philadelphia region.

LOWER MERION CONSERVANCY GRANT

In the spring, Middle School science teacher Doug Ross was approached by the Lower Merion Conservancy, who invited Friends' Central to join a consortium of organizations working to evaluate the quality and health of local streams. Friends' Central is the only K-12 school in the consortium, which includes several colleges (Villanova University and Ursinus College), the Lower Merion Conservancy, and the Darby Valley Creek Association. The Lower Merion Conservancy has allocated a portion of grant money to FCS to engage in a three-year project to study and protect Indian Creek, the local creek. Doug Ross and Middle School science teacher Patricia Zaradic are working with Middle School students to conduct the (study). The first year, 2014-2015, will entail a detailed study of the health of the creek to establish a baseline, which can then be monitored across the three years. Over the following two years, the aim is to devise strategies for limiting run-off from local properties and keeping pollutants out of the stream, with a goal of sharing these strategies with the local community. The first purchase using the grant money has been a probe which measures five different variables of water health, and 8th graders are currently calibrating the probe so that it can be put into action.

COMMENCEMENT 2014

and

Its Future Impact on the WORLD

On Saturday, June 7, 2014, in front of their proud parents, teachers, families, and friends, the 95 members of the "fierce" Class of 2014, as described by Student Commencement speaker Lauren Callans '14, became the 169th class to graduate from Friends' Central School.

The air on this beautiful late spring day was filled with happiness, pride, and a bit of sadness, as these outstanding seniors had left such a tremendous mark on Friends' Central, but, as fellow Student Commencement speaker Jerome Allen '14 said, "...this is the last time we will be together as a whole; after today, we will never assemble again with every member of our class. I know that following this ceremony, I will shake the hand of, smile at, or hug one of my classmates for the last time."

FRIENDS' CENTRAL SCHOOL

However, both student speakers, as well as Head of School Craig Sellers and faculty Commencement speaker Laura Haimm, spoke about the future and what life has in store for our graduates. Lauren Callans explained, "The next step in our lives is scary. But that's what makes life worth living. If there were no fear, there would be no excitement, there would be no pride in accomplishing things. Though I'm sad to leave this place ... I have faith in [the FCS] community and all the things it has taught me."

COMMENCEMENT 2014

Jerome also said, "As our tenure at Friends' Central comes to a close, we are all obligated to use what we have learned to make a social impact in the world. Friends' Central has given all of us the proper knowledge as well as instilled in us the exceptional character to not only just be successful human beings, but to reach out and touch the lives and hearts of those in our local and global communities."

Jerome also touched on what we can expect from this group. "I can say with confidence that you are looking at future leaders in technology, politicians, lawyers, teachers, doctors, and the list goes on; and in everything that lies ahead of us, we will bring that part of us that we have developed at Friends' Central. I cannot wait to see the wonderful things that everyone will accomplish in their future endeavors," he shared. We, your teachers, parents, families, and friends, are also excited to see what these exceptional graduates will accomplish in their lives. If their time at Friends' Central is any indication, we surely are going to feel the impact that the members of the Class of 2014 will have on the world. ow

Upper School STUDENT AWARDS

This spring, 19 members of the Class of 2014 were inducted into the Cum Laude Society, and many students were recognized for their outstanding efforts in academics, arts, athletics, service, and citizenship at the annual Upper School Academic Awards Assembly.

Top The 2014 inductees into the Friends' Central School Cum Laude Society were: Rohan Alur, Zander Bashaw, Jenna Bergmann, Lauren Callans, Emma Dahle, Peter Dissinger, Elizabeth Flick, Emily Flick, Jordyn Karliner, Claudia Kassner, Julie Levitan, Max Luzuriaga, Chiara Neilson, Michael Nguyen, Maya Rosenberg, Lindsay Saligman, Emilia Weinberg, Julia Weiss, and Emma Xu.

(BOTTOM) The Executive Award, given to a boy and girl in the Upper School, who, by vote of students and faculty, represent the highest qualifications of school citizenship, was presented to Matthew Strahan and Isabel Nardi.

REUNION 2014

Once again, Friends' Central School celebrated another fabulous Reunion Weekend.

ORE THAN 300 ALUMNI/AE AND THEIR GUESTS enjoyed a weekend of parties, campus tours, faculty presentations, sporting events, and special programs. The only thing better than the weather was the amazing camaraderie and spirit of our FCS alumni/ae. We hope you reconnected with old friends, made some new ones, and experienced again why you love your alma mater.

If you joined us for Reunion Weekend 2014, you experienced firsthand the excitement of coming back to where it all began. If you weren't able to join us, we missed you.

Here are some highlights from the weekend:

- 2. On Friday, May 9, at Career Day 2014 these outstanding alumni/ae spoke to juniors and seniors about their careers and shared with students the paths that led them from Friends' Central to their current professions: Jesse Amoroso' 04, Vice President, Amoroso's Baking Company; Laura Wass '04, CEO, Designer, and Producer, WXYZ Jewelry; and the Honorable Raymond Lohier '84, Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.
- 3. Doug Linton '68 took Reunion attendees on a tour of the beautiful arboretum housed on Friends' Central's City Avenue campus.
- 4. Lyn Murray '64 and Tom Dean '64 presented the Reunion Gift, collected from all 2014 Reunion Classes, to Head of School Craig Sellers.

- 5. On Thursday, May 8, Lisa Kay Solomon '89, pictured here with Upper School history teacher Gary Nicolai, spoke to the FCS community about her new book Moments of Impact: How to Design Strategic Conversations that Accelerate Change. Founding principal of LKS Partners, who design and facilitate strategic leadership discussions, Lisa also teaches the groundbreaking MBA in Design Strategy course at California College of the Arts.
- Young alumni/ae enjoyed their gathering at Frankford Hall in Philadelphia.
- 7. Mark Silberberg '84 received the 2014 Distinguished Alumnus Award for his outstanding accomplishments in the field of innovative education
- 8. Upper School English and Human Sexuality teacher Al Vernacchio gave a dynamic lecture, entitled Sexuality and Society, to alumni/ae during Reunion weekend.

The Annual Report of Gifts acknowledges all those who have made gifts to Friends' Central School during the fiscal year July 1, 2013 – June 30, 2014.

The Advancement Office has worked carefully to ensure the accuracy of the information contained within these pages. If you come across an error or omission, please accept our apologies and advise us of the error by calling 610.645.5039 or emailing giving@friendscentral.org. This Annual Report showcases some of the great student artwork happening in all three divisions of the School.

Dear Friends,

Friends' Central School is a thriving hub of learning and discovery thanks to all of you. Every one of your gifts made a difference, and each represented an investment in the lives of our students and our community.

We are grateful to 1,595 alumni/ae, parents, grandparents, past parents, faculty, staff, and friends who made gifts to Friends' Central during the 2013-2014 fiscal year. These gifts came to us through Annual Gifts to the Friends' Central Fund, through planned and estate gifts, and through the Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) and Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit (OSTC) programs, for a total of $1,895,744.

Gifts to the Friends' Central Fund help to close the gap between the actual cost of educating Friends' Central students and the cost of tuition. These gifts sustain every aspect of the Friends' Central experience, ensuring passionate and lifelong learning, dedicated teachers, talented students, beautiful facilities, and extraordinary opportunities.

Planned and estate gifts represent the long-considered legacies created by forward-thinking members of our community. In 2013-2014, these gifts came from loyal Friends' Central alumni/ae, each of whom used a different giving vehicle, ranging from trusts and annuities to IRA distributions and simple bequests. These acts of generosity represented tremendous faith in Friends' Central, as well as gratitude for time spent here and love for our community.

Educational Improvement Tax Credit (EITC) and Opportunity Scholarship Tax Credit (OSTC) gifts are remarkable opportunities for many business owners to support Friends' Central while receiving a tax credit. This year, a growing number of parents, alumni/ae, and School vendors chose to support FCS in this way. All money given through these programs supports financial aid, strengthening and broadening our community.

I hope you are as inspired as I am by the following pages, which document the overwhelming support of our community, through your donations as well as the countless hours of hard work given to FCS by our dedicated volunteers. With your sustained support, we will continue to pursue our Mission: "to cultivate the intellectual, spiritual, and ethical promise of our students."

Many thanks for your generosity,

Lydia As Mark

GREEN CLUB

The members of this club gave early in the fall - online or in person - to ensure that they would receive no paper solicitations from the Office of Annual Giving. If you are interested in "giving green" in the future, please email Kim Emmons-Benjet at kbenjet@friendscentral.org.

BLACKBURN SOCIETY

The Board of Trustees established the Blackburn Society to honor individuals who have made provisions in their wills or estate plans to benefit Friends' Central School. These donors, who have informed the School of their intentions, have helped provide for the School's future through a variety of gift-planning vehicles, including bequest intentions, testamentary trusts, life income vehicles, such as pooled income investments, charitable gift annuities, gifts of real estate, and other deferred gifts. Their vision and wisdom extend beyond the immediate needs of the School, and their generosity provides a source of income which the School can depend upon and use to plan for generations ahead.

The Blackburn Society was named in honor of Eliza E. Blackburn '22 and her family. Their estate gift helped make possible the purchase of the Lower School campus and establish the Blackburn Enhancement, a salary supplement given to teachers each December.

If you would like to inform us of your intention to include Friends' Central School in your estate plans, or if you would like information about ways in which you can make planned gifts to Friends' Central, please call call Lydia Martin, Director of Institutional Advancement, at 610.645.5043 or lmartin@friendscentral.org.

HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION 2013-2014

The Home and School Association is the organized body of all Friends' Central parents. The personal investment of mothers and fathers in their children's education is an integral part of the School's philosophy, and by encouraging parental involvement, Friends' Central accomplishes its goal of establishing a partnership among the School, the student, and the family. Thank you to the following parents who held leadership positions and to all those who volunteered at HSA events throughout the year.
